Yaama

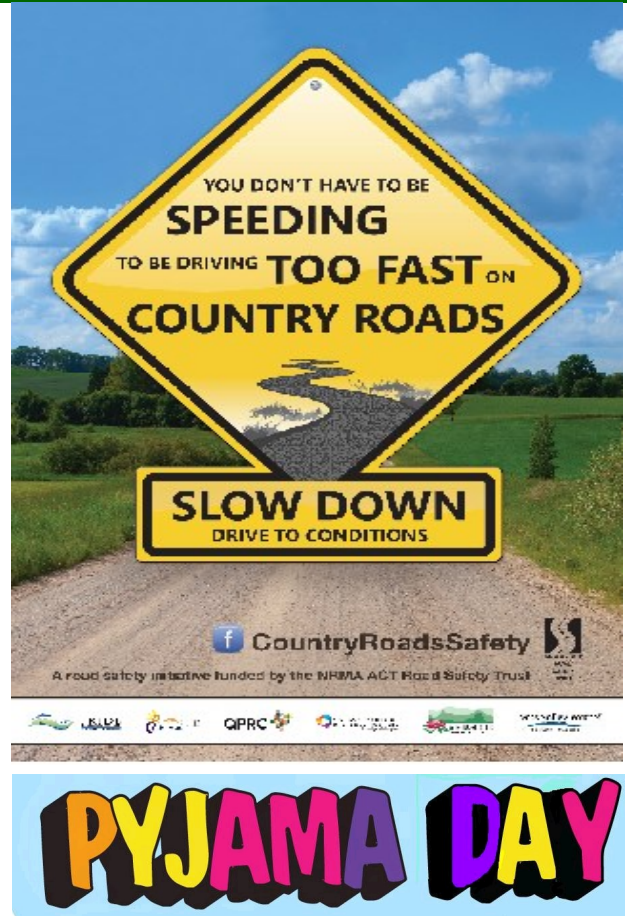

Welcome to the last week of Term 2. Reports went home on Monday along with Parent/Teacher request forms and some information on how to get the most out of Parent/Teacher interviews. If you would like to have an interview with your child's teacher, please fill in the request form and return it to school before Friday 30 June. Interviews are scheduled for Wednesday 19 July 2017.

We are currently in the process of collecting information to form our new school plan for 2018-2020. A number of workshops have been run at school to gather parent and community input in to what Berinba's priorities should be for the next three-year period. It is not too late to have your say with an eform now available through the Skoolbag app for those wishing to answer three very short questions about our school.

Berinba is very excited to be offering students the opportunity to take up the offer of guitar lessons next term with Yass Guitar Tuition. A note went home detailing prices and when lessons will be held at school. If your child is interested, please return your note to the front office before Friday.

Please remember Monday 17 July 2017 is a staff development day and students do not come to school. Staff will be busy working on a range of professional development and planning for the new semester. Students return to school on Tuesday 18 July. We hope everyone has a safe break and gets away somewhere warm over the holidays. Hoping to not see any casts first week back next term!!

1/2B Writing:

Snakes Eat People

Snakes eat people with their teeth.
The snakes spy on people.
The snakes bite people on the leg.
Snakes are scared of people. Snakes slither and steady. The huts kill people.

Rhyan King

All About Snakes

How Snakes Bite

Sakes have a venomous cup just above their fangs.
Snakes squeeze their prey.

Bite People

Some snakes bite people with their fangs. Some snakes can kill people in just one minute. Snakes with venom have a cup in their face.

Henry Shoring

Snakes are dangerous they bite you in one bite. They have fangs but you got to be careful. But you look at the snake they are dangerous. They want you gone be careful when they look weird.

Molly Robinson

Facts about Snakes

What they feel like

When they have new skin they feel scaly. When their skin is old t feels hard. Snakes wriggle out of their skin like a human taking a sock off. They do it when their old skin is too small.

What snakes look like

Snakes look scary. A Snake doesn't have legs. Snakes are different colours, their scales are like armour.

How Snakes get food

Snake's use their tongues to smell.
A snake wraps its body around its prey, this is called constricting.
Some snakes bite. They inject poison into their prey.

Ellie Hope

Dangerous Snakes

Reptiles

Snakes are reptiles. Most reptiles are dangerous. They are scary and they can kill you.

King Brown

King browns are dangerous and deadly. I had a king brown egg in my backyard.

Green Pythons

Green pythons are very creepy. They are 6 meters long. They are big.
Green pythons can blend in with trees, bush and shrubs. They are very very fast like other snakes.

Eli Horton

Snake kill

Snakes could eat people. Snakes have sharp teeth to bite people.
Snakes can squeeze. Snakes are scary. Snakes have fangs. Snakes are skinny. Snakes are soft, smooth.
Snakes are scared of humans and parents. They love their snakes said mum, dad and brother.

Sophie Baker

Snake facts

Killing people

Snakes can kill people by choking

them around the neck next they are dead.

Then snakes eat them by swallowing them down there hole.

Snakes can bite

Snakes can bite people to get their prey.

Snakes can scale

Snake can scale because they have no legs or arms.

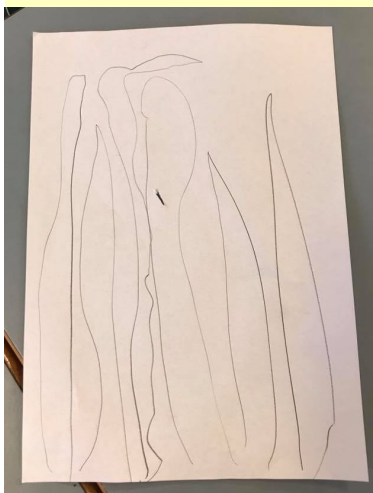

Venom

Inside the snake's fangs there is venom which is poison and can kill people in 5 seconds.

3/4SS Class Work:

3/4SS have been beginning to explore books by author and artist Jeannie Baker. We have been looking at the details and construction of her illustrations and how they feel very real. We read The Hidden Forest by Jeannie Baker and recreated our own underwater pictures using pencil, water paints and tissue paper to give it a layered effect. In Term 3, we will continue to look at her illustrations and link them into our Geography Unit.

Electorate Office 4822 6444

All regional school buses will have seatbelts four years ahead of schedule, thanks to a $29 million school bus seatbelt blitz in the NSW budget.

Member for Goulburn Pru Goward said all 85 buses in the Goulburn Electorate will now have seatbelts because of this commitment.

"This is an important fund that will make sure our kids get to and from school safely," Ms Goward said.

Minister for Transport and Infrastructure Andrew Constance said the installation of seatbelts on the rural and regional bus fleet would be fast tracked to ensure the safety of regional public transport.

We are fast tracking seatbelts on regional school buses, making sure all regional students can travel on buses with seatbelts by December 2019 – four years ahead of schedule," Mr Constance said.

"This is something our communities have been crying out for and I'm committed to making sure kids across the state can travel to school safely."

Funding in the 2017-18 NSW budget means all buses travelling on dedicated regional school routes will have seatbelts by December 2019, ahead of the current schedule of 2023.

All 2,800 rural and regional buses will have seatbelts by December 2021 with the replacement of 415 buses and retrofitting 1,937 existing buses, on top of the 515 buses that have already been replaced

Managing Anxiety and Depression For Children, Adolescents and Parents

Growing up can be difficult.
Being a parent is difficult too.

The Yass Child & Adolescent Mental Health Service will offer a course for parents / families to navigate this difficult time. The course will provide information and strategies on how to manage anxiety and depression.

This course will be helpful for parents/carers of any age children, although the focus will be on the Primary and High School years. If adolescents or older children are interested in attending with their parent or by themselves, they would be very welcome.

Participants won't be asked to share their personal information (we know it is a small town).

When: Term 3 2017 (starting week 3)
Tuesday evenings for 5 weeks, starting 1 August to 29 August 2017.
7-8.30pm.

Where: Yass High School (room 11 – down the end of the corridor from main office)

Cost: No financial cost, but you will be asked to do your best to attend all sessions and practice the skills you learn in between sessions.

Facilitator: Jenni Hudson – Yass Child & Adolescent Mental Health Service.

RSVP: Yass High School – 6226 1711.

More information – Jenni Hudson on 6220 2103.

Small changes,
big differences.
